Dear Mr. Parzyck:

On October 29, 2009, Invenergy Wind North America LLC and its subsidiary, Ledge Wind Energy LLC, filed a letter notifying the Public Service Commission (Commission) that all documents had been filed that comprise Invenergy's application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity (CPCN) for the Ledge Wind Energy Project. As such, Invenergy requested that the Commission initiate its 30-day completeness review period under Wis. Stat. § 196.491(3)(a)(2).

Invenergy's original filings did not include the geographic information systems data required by the general instruction on pages 6 and 7 of Version 4.5 of the Commission's Application Filing Requirements for Wind Energy Projects. That data was subsequently provided by Invenergy on November 11, 2009. Consequently, the Commission is notifying Invenergy that the Commission's completeness review period under Wis. Stat. § 196.491(3)(a)(2) commences on November 11, 2009, and therefore, the Commission must make its completeness determination by December 11, 2009.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact Marilyn Weiss at (608) 266-1613.

Sincerely,

\s\ Robert Norcross
